IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

MICHAEL RANGLIN
207 Elizabeth Ave., Apt 2
Asbury Park, NJ 07712

                        Plaintiff,

        v.

BLOOMBERG FINANCE, LP
431 Ridge Rd
Dayton, NJ 08810

and

MODIS, INC.
90 Woodbridge Center Drive #220
Woodbridge, NJ 07095

                        Defendants.

CIVIL ACTION NO:

COMPLAINT WITH JURY DEMAND

CIVIL ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Michael Ranglin (hereinafter "Plaintiff"), by and through undersigned counsel, hereby complains as follows against Defendants Bloomberg Finance, LP and Modis, Inc., (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Defendants.")

INTRODUCTION

1.      Plaintiff has initiated this action to redress Defendants' violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"), the Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA"), and the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination ("NJLAD").  Plaintiff suffered from a substantial health condition and requested an accommodation to take time off to care for his health condition.  In response, Defendants fired Plaintiff due to his disability and/or because he had requested an accommodation. In addition, upon information and belief, Defendant fired

Plaintiff because his health condition would have caused Defendants' financial burden related to health care costs to increase.  As a result of these actions, Plaintiff suffered damages as set forth herein.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2.      This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28

U.S.C. § 1331 because the claims herein arise under laws of the United States, the ADA and ERISA.  This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the related state law claims because they arise out of the same circumstances and are based upon a common nucleus of operative fact.

3.      This Court may properly maintain personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant's contacts with this state and this judicial district are sufficient for the exercise of jurisdiction over Defendant to comply with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4.      Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, venue is properly laid in this judicial district because all of the acts and/or omissions giving rise to the claims set forth herein occurred in this judicial district.

5.      Plaintiff has exhausted all administrative remedies required as a prerequisite to the filing of his instant ADA claims.

PARTIES

6.      The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein as if set forth in full.

7.      Plaintiff is an adult individual, with an address as set forth in the caption.

8.      Defendant Bloomberg Finance, LP. (hereinafter referred to as "Defendant

Bloomberg") is a corporation that conducts business within the state of New Jersey at the address set forth in the caption.

9.      Defendant Modis, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "Defendant Modis") is a corporation that conducts business within the state of New Jersey at the address set forth in the caption.

10.     At all times relevant herein, Defendants acted through its agents, servants, and employees, each of whom acted at all times relevant herein in the course and scope of their employment/engagement with Defendants.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

11.     The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein as if set forth in full.

12.     In or around 2002, Plaintiff was diagnosed with Crohn's disease, specifically Ulcerated Colitis and Primary Sclerosing Cholangitis (hereinafter "disability").

13.     Plaintiff's symptoms of his disability include, but are not limited to, severe abdominal pain, nausea and diarrhea.

14.     Defendant Modis is a staffing company.

15.     Upon information and belief, Defendant Modis self-insured the health insurance plan provided to its employees.

16.     In or around early September 2015, Defendant Modis hired Plaintiff as an IT specialist.

17.     Plaintiff's position with Defendant Modis would have provided medical benefits if it had not fired him.

18.     Plaintiff told Defendant Modis that he planned to enroll in the healthcare plan offered to him.

19.     During Plaintiff's interview with Defendant Modis, Plaintiff informed Recruiter Mohammed Nazmussdad ("Recruiter Nazmussdad") of his disability and further explained that the flare ups of his disability were sporadic and may need to be attended to at any time.

20.     Thereafter, through Defendant Modis, Plaintiff interviewed with Defendant Bloomberg for the position of an IT specialist.

21.     During Plaintiff's interview with Defendant Bloomberg Plaintiff informed Defendant Bloomberg of his disability and further explained that the flare ups of his disability were sporadic and may need to be attended to at any time.

22.     Defendant Bloomberg informed Plaintiff of their policies for taking time off from work, specifically that they were very accommodating and offered unlimited sick days.

23.     On or around September 10, 2015, Defendant Modis placed Plaintiff as an IT specialist with Defendant Bloomberg.

24.     On or around October 8, 2015, Plaintiff began to feel ill and informed his Supervisor Adam Motto ("Supervisor Motto") that he needed to go see his doctor soon.

25.     Thereafter, on or around October 9, 2015, Plaintiff experienced a severe flare up of his disability and was admitted to this hospital due to same.

26.     Plaintiff immediately informed Recruiter Nazmussadad and Supervisor Robert Stanley he would not be at work due to the flare up of his disability.

27.     Plaintiff remained in the hospital for the next ten (10) days.

28.     Throughout the duration of his hospital stay, Plaintiff remained in contact with Defendant Modis and Defendant Bloomberg and provided updates of his condition and anticipated release date.

29.     On or around October 20, 2015, Plaintiff was discharged from the hospital.

30.     Plaintiff immediately called Supervisor Motto and told him he would be returning to work the next day.

31.     On October 21, 2015, Plaintiff returned to work and began experiencing another flare up of his disability, requiring him to return to the hospital for immediate treatment.

32.     Plaintiff called Supervisor Motto and informed him of same.

33.     Later that day, Recruiter Nazmussadad called Plaintiff and fired him.

34.     When Plaintiff asked why he was being terminated, Recruiter Nazmussadad told him he didn't feel comfortable given the type of the business and that Defendant Modis and Defendant Bloomberg needed employees with high attendance to ensure 24-hour coverage.

35.     Accordingly, Defendants fired Plaintiff due to his disability and/or perceived disability.
